

Hallelujah

Music by Leonard Cohen

Lyrics by Eva Hamer

A bitter smell for miles around A broken wing, a shrieking sound

Someone who needs freedom coming to ya

A hundred thousand suffering Only after death they sing
A single and a silent hallelujah

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
hallelu-u-u-u-jah

Once I heard that farms like here
Won't be the same after 40 years
The world is changing shape just like we're used ta

Let's plant a flag into the ground
Our voices join into a sound A promise and a prayer for revolution

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
hallelu-u-u-u-jah

I've been on my own before
A single voice against this war So powerless alone before I knew ya

But now that we are organized

We'll light the path to save their lives

They'll be safe and free soon,
hallelujah

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
hallelu-u-u-u-jah

Last year, only five of us Went in a farm, now hundreds of us crowding round the doors to try and save them

Every day our numbers grow
The love we have can overflow It started as a thought, became a movement

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
hallelu-u-u-u-jah

From grocery stores and slaughter trucks

To jail cells, and with any luck
They used to laugh but soon they'll start to join us

Like warriors we will train our minds

To fight with love and only find Forgiveness at the end, just
hallelujah

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah,
hallelu-u-u-u-jah...
